President Patrick outlined some ideas on club changes at Oct. 31 meeting. Stressing that this is the club's show, not "my show", he asked why we are here and that club needed to do a better job getting people into the club. Referencing the changes in the 'cell' society, he asked: do we talk enough about why we are here. He indicated that one thing he wanted to do is present checks at our regular meetings.

Other ideas included having a recap of some impact we have had during the week; a chart of annual events and where we stand; a chart of candy sales and where we stand weekly; he used the slides here to guide the discussions.

Here's Canyon Camp weekend report

The 41st annual Woodcutter's Ball was a huge success! The weather was generally cooperative to allow many projects to be completed throughout the day. The traditional continental breakfast was served and work projects were underway by 9 a.m. The event not only focused on our traditional winterization projects, but additional effort was given to cleanup from the October flooding.

We also experienced great attendance with 84 Kiwanians, Scouts, Scouters, Camp Staff, and friends of Canyon Camp. Each gave of their time, talents, and equipment to accomplish an amazing amount of work. The list below is a summary of the completed work projects:

Winter wood was hauled and stacked at the Jamboree and Founder's cabins.

Covered air conditioners at the office, condo, trading post, cook's cabin, and founder's lodge.

The health lodge sign and porch chairs were moved into buildings for winter storage.

Main area and program area picnic tables were stacked against trees for the winter.

Removed dining hall "raccoon guards" and moved them inside of the building.

Placed shutters and door covers over screened windows and doors for winter protection at the dining hall building.

Drained campsite waterlines for the winter.

The secondary gate on the lake dam was raised to start the draining process of Coon Lake for the winter.

Gutters were cleaned at the office/trading post and dining hall.

Dry storage food items were moved to the kitchen for winter storage.

Pine and Pioneer campsites to split wood for winter cabin use.

Chainsaw crews were sent to roadways between Amvets and Lookout campsites to cut and chunk fallen trees. A skid loader was used to pull and lift trees for cutting.

Tree debris was loaded on trailers and hauled to a burn site.

Main area trash barrels were hauled to the back of camp for winter storage.

Fourteen replacement staff cabin window shutters (built and delivered to camp by John Wurtzel and Gary Hollister) were installed by two crews.

Chapel benches were moved from the chapel and stacked in the dining hall for winter storage.

Decorative flower pots on the Health Lodge porch were cleaned and stored for winter.

Skid loader was used to push back fallen trees along road to Daniel Boone and Lost Battalion campsites.

Fenced two main area trees to prevent deer damage.

Two crews were set up along roadways to Lookout,

The Jamboree cabin steel roofing installation was started and by the end of the day it was about 75% completed. A crew of five returned to camp on Thursday, October 24th to continue the project. It is now 99% complete. Chimney flashing and some minor trimming yet to be completed soon.

Creek rock was loaded and take to the base of Indian Point campsite trail. A crew of 12 carried 5-gallon pails of rock to the "steps" (railroad tie boxes) up the trail to Indian Point campsite. This project has been worked on for two years. The Order of the Arrow worked on this trail improvement project this past summer and the two spring and fall events prior to this weekend. A huge project and improvement!

Cleaned up tree debris in Church campsite. Two crews cut and cleaned up tree debris from the October floods between the high rope course and the ford. A cutting crew cut and stacked trees at the road entrance to Over the Hill campsite and across from the Nature Center.

Road gravel was raked from the shooting sports areas back into the road. (washouts from the October flood)
Grass, branch, and misc. debris was cleaned from the shooting sports fence line and ranges.

Silt was scraped and removed from the archery building. The inside walls were brushed down as well. Materials were cut and assembled to make six new picnic tables. Tables are about 90% completed. They will be finished by volunteers and/or the Order of the Arrow. Old cabinets and some shelving were removed from the barn workshop. New shelving was constructed and sorting of fasteners and hardware continued. The gazebo was brushed, sanded, and painted brown.

Monroe Kiwanians and family members in attendance:
Randy Iverson, Bob Vickerman & wife, Gaida, Ron Spielman & wife, Jennifer, Noah Brisky, Lee Binkley.

Of the $500 request to Monroe Kiwanis, expenses amounted to $453.15. Additionally, dessert items were donated by Colony Brands, Inc., Paul Holz, Jeannie Wurtzel, and Linda Nott. All were enjoyed by our great crew.

Once again the Kiwanis Club of Monroe has been supportive of Canyon Camp and to the youth it serves. We are always appreciative of the help provided by the Monroe Kiwanians. It is great that our membership can see firsthand the results of their effort and support. It is always great to have some time at camp to share in work as well as fellowship with the membership of the Kiwanis Club of Monroe. Please share our appreciation with the club.

Again, thank you!
