THE MONROE KIWANIS CLUB
KIWANIS CANDY SALE

-SERVING MONROE SINCE 1921-

STARTING NOVEMBER 2, 2023
GREAT LOCATIONS AROUND THE COMMUNITY AND FROM ANY KIWANIS MEMBER.

Monroe Kiwanis has been helping out in the Monroe Community for over 100 years. We are pleased to now offer 27 ounces of real chocolate covered whole macadamia nuts. Candy sales are the primary source of fundraising for our club. This is a real value. Where can you get such a large amount of wonderful candy at such a low price? This is a great gift for just $20. This is a gift that helps out the community. Proceeds help out the Monroe area community. The club gives annually to the support the following: Park and Recreation, Kiwanis Youth Cabin, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Canyon Camp, Camp Wawbeek, Preschool Reading Project and many more.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT AND HAVE A HAPPY AND HEALTHY HOLIDAYS!

DO Not use this flier; it is for illustrative purposes only.
A NEW sales piece is being prepared and will be available soon!

The famous Tractor Pull on September 16 is sneaking up on us.
 Reid is getting nervous! We still need lots of help.
 The first shift 10:00 -1:00 IS FULL, but when the tractors heat up and the event gets hopping we need HELP.
 Shifts are 1-4:00 and 4:00-7:30; let Reid know when you can help.
 Text 608 426-4499 or rstangel@charter.com.
 Thanks, time is growing short.

Our own Patrick Bodell gave a "riveting" presentation on the origins and now operational GreenCounty.tv (above)

Kiwanis received a flock of posters from kids who enjoyed some of our Fair ice cream!

OUR TECH SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP AWARDEES—with Kiwanian Ron Spielman, who introduced the group. All are going to Advanced Welding Institute at Eagle River: from left: Nathaniel Benkert; Vanessa Hartwig and Hayden Barker. Vanessa already has her certification from BlackHawk Tech and works at Monroe Truck. Our fourth recipient (not shown) is Aaron Martinez who will attend BlackHawk Tech. The Eagle River school is an intense six month course of welding .

Monroe Main Street's Jordan Norby and Terra Junk were on hand recently to tell us about Main Street happenings.

Jacob's Swag

Teri Ellefson from Jacob's Swag traced the story of her son's suicide and the impetus to initiate a foundation in his name. The aim of the foundation is to educate in areas of suicide prevention; mental health; making good choices. Teri itemized areas of accomplishment: Farmer appreciation bags; Buddy benches; Boxes of love; Apps on "got your back" and "mental health." 123 scholarships in Monroe and South Wayne.

The Club's 5th Thursday meeting was pie night at the Youth Cabin!
